

INTERSECT.ORG.NZ
PRESENTS:

WAIORA ARTERIES OF AOTEAROA

ART COMPETITION

One young artist will win $2000*

Young Artists (18-25) are invited to submit a proposal for an Artwork that that is an interpretation of the central idea of "Waiora, Arteries of Aoteroa". This could take the form of painting, sculpture, photography, video/film, or installation.

* The Artist with the most successful proposal will be given $1000 for material costs towards making the art, and a cash prize of $1000.

The winning proposal will inspire in the viewer a sense of the significance of water for Aotearoa's future, promote cultural diversity in sustaining our fresh water resources and demonstrate commitment to producing the artwork sustainability; that is maximising 'life force', and minimising waste and resource.

Download the application:
www.intersect.org.nz/waiora/

Your proposal for the Artwork must be received by 4pm 3 June 2009

More information: www.intersect.org.nz/waiora

This project was made possible by the following contributors:

New Zealand National Commission for UNESCO
Te Kōmihana Matua o Aotearoa mō UNESCO

WHAT'S IT TO YA?